

RYDER CUP JUNIOR GOLF ACADEMY

PGA Section Guidelines

The following application is to be used for selection of participants to the 2012 Ryder Cup Junior Golf Academy. The Academy will be conducted over a 7-day period from July 1-8, 2012 at PGA Golf Club and PGA Center for Golf Learning & Performance in PGA Village, Port St. Lucie, Florida.

Criteria:

- Selection will be by the Philadelphia PGA Junior Golf Committee and will be based on:
 - One (1) boy and one (1) girl from the Philadelphia Section PGA, ages 14-17
 - Academics (minimum cumulative GPA of 2.5)
 - Must be enrolled in an accredited high school within the Section boundaries in which the candidate applies
 - High desire to excel in competitive golf (participation in Section, Amateur, regional and/or high school competitive golf programs)
 - Character (involvement in activities such as but not limited to community service, student government and leadership associations)
 - Participant/family unable to afford to have the participant attend other elite player development academies
 - Selection by the PGA Section will also take into account diversity of the participant.

Funding:

- The PGA of America will provide the following for the participant:
 - airfare (coach)
 - housing for the participant
 - on-site meals for the participant
 - scheduled ground transportation for the participant from Palm Beach International Airport to official hotel to Palm Beach International Airport
 - ground transportation for the participant to off-site events
 - The Ryder Cup Junior Golf Academy on-site experience for the participant.

Applications:

- All applications must be received by 5:00 pm on Friday, February 3, 2012.
- Please email, fax or mail your application to the Philadelphia Section Office.
